

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH
St. Joseph's Preparatory School
Philadelphia, Pa.

St. Joseph's Preparatory School—a Catholic, Jesuit college preparatory school serving nearly 1,000 young men—is seeking an experienced football coach who is familiar with the Jesuit-Ignatian vision and philosophy. Anticipated starting date for the successful candidate is spring 2010.

St. Joseph's Prep football is a nationally-respected program which has, for many years, produced student-athletes who have excelled at the high school level, at the college level and beyond. The school nurtures a highly competitive academic environment and draws students from the Philadelphia region (city plus Pennsylvania and New Jersey suburbs).

Candidates should possess outstanding football acumen, strong organizational and leadership skills and an ability to interact with players, parents, faculty, staff and media. Individuals interested in the position should send a letter along with a comprehensive resume and a list of references to:

Mr. James Murray, Co-Chair
Football Coach Search Committee
St. Joseph's Preparatory School
1733 W. Girard Avenue
Philadelphia, Pa. 19130
